

Battle in the Junction

02-26-2023

Comments:

Welcome to the 2023 Battle in the Junction Volleyball Tournament!

You are responsible for any schedule changes until 2-25-23 at 8pm! Coaches will be notified of any changes after that time.

There will be no coaches meeting, upon arrival coaches will need to check-in and sign their roster before playing. Out of region teams will need to bring a hard copy of your roster to provide at check-in.

Club MVP Volleyball appreciates your attendance and cooperation with the following information.

For all sites the following applies:

Fan/Player/Coach behavior must be sportsmanlike at all times!

Coolers and Concessions: Please see each individual facility rules below on food, drink, and coolers. All facilities: Only drinks with a lid will be allowed on the gym floors, NO FOOD. All concession stands will take CASH ONLY.

Absolutely no electrical appliances will be allowed at any facility.

No ball handling anywhere in the schools except the gym area! We are privileged guests at these facilities!

A $5 admission fee will be charged for spectators (cash only). Senior citizens ages 65 and up, military, and kids ages 5 and under will be admitted free.

If you pre-ordered a tournament t-shirt, you will need to pick that up from the court manager at your site. Cash or check will be accepted. There will be a few extra shirts available on a first come, first-serve basis for anyone that didn't pre-order.

All adults must have credentials. These credentials need to be visible at all times (when coaching and officiating). Parents may help shag and score keep if they have a parent membership but may not sit on the bench. These parents would need to have a parent credential. Out of region teams will be given credentials when they check-in by showing their membership card and driver's license.

Officiating: For age groups 14 and under, a rostered coach must be the R1. For age groups 15 and older, a rostered coach must be the R1, R2, or scorer.
